Twenty-second session

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA OF THE TWENTY-SECOND REGULAR SESSION
AND ALLOCATION OF ITEMS

Second report of the General Committee

1. At its 168th and 169th meetings, on 25 and 26 September 1967, the General Committee considered requests from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for the inclusion of the following additional items in the agenda of the twenty-second session:

   (a) Need to expedite the drafting of a definition of aggression in the light of the present international situation (A/6833 and Corr.1).

   (b) Conclusion of a convention on the prohibition of the use of nuclear weapons (A/6834).

2. The General Committee decided to recommend to the General Assembly that both items should be included in the agenda.

3. The General Committee adopted the following decisions regarding the allocation of the items:

   (a) The Committee decided, by a vote of 13 to 5, with 5 abstentions, to recommend that the item listed in paragraph 1 (a) above should be referred to the Sixth Committee.

   (b) The Committee decided without objection to recommend that the item listed in paragraph 1 (b) above should be referred to the First Committee.

4. In connexion with the item proposed by the Secretary-General, entitled "The situation which has arisen between Guinea and the Ivory Coast involving section 11 of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations" (A/BUR/158/Add.3), the General Committee decided to defer a decision.
