Two substantive sessions were held from 4 to 15 May and from 5 to 16 October 1981. During these three sessions the Committee held meetings. The Committee also held a number of informal meetings. 7. At its first meeting, following the example of the Preparatory Committee for the first special session devoted to disarmament, the Committee decided to be governed by the relevant parts of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly. Notwithstanding that decision it was understood that every effort should be made to ensure that decisions on matters of substance would be adopted by consensus. It was further agreed that should it prove impossible to secure consensus, the Chairman would then duly inform the Committee, so that the relevant decisions could be adopted in accordance with the provisions of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly.

8. At the same meeting, the Committee also agreed that the representatives of States not members of the Committee would be entitled to participate in its plenary meetings without the right to vote, as decided by the Preparatory Committee for the first special session on disarmament. In accordance with that decision, the representatives of Ireland and the Holy See participated in the work of the Preparatory Committee and made statements during the Committee's meetings.

9. At its first meeting, on 4 December 1980, the Committee agreed to follow the practice of the first special session on disarmament with respect to the participation of representatives of non-governmental organizations and peace and disarmament research institutions. Accordingly, the Committee decided that such representatives could be present at meetings of the Committee and that they should provide the Secretariat with lists of communications received from such organizations... that were conducting research in the field of disarmament. At its 17th meeting, on 15 May 1981, the Committee agreed to a recommendation made by its bureau that the organizations concerned should be allowed to make oral statements at one meeting during the October session of the Preparatory Committee. With regard to the representation of those organizations, the Committee agreed that the matter would be decided by the organizations themselves and that their decision would be conveyed to the Chairman of the Committee.

10. At its first meeting, on 4 December 1980, the Committee decided to invite the International Atomic Energy Agency and other specialized agencies interested in disarmament to take part in the work of the Committee as observers. At the 22nd meeting of the Committee, the representative of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization made a statement.

11. At its 25th meeting on 9 October 1981, the Preparatory Committee heard statements by the representatives of the following non-governmental organizations: Ad Hoc NGO Liaison Group of the Special NGO Committee on Disarmament at Geneva and the NGO Committee on Disarmament (at the United Nations Headquarters), Afro-Asian Peoples Solidarity Organization, International Peace Bureau, World Federation of Democratic Youth, World Peace Council, as well as three speakers speaking on behalf of the NGO Committee on Disarmament (at United Nations). The Committee also heard statements by the representatives of the following peace research institutions: International Peace Research Association, the Stanley Foundation, Institute for Defense and Disarmament Studies.

12. In the course of the Preparatory Committee's work, the following working papers were submitted by Member States:

   (a) Working paper entitled "Principal objectives of international co-operation for speedier practical progress of disarmament negotiations", submitted by Czechoslovakia (A/AC.206/11, annex);

   (b) Working paper submitted by Finland on the implementation of the Final Document of the first special session devoted to disarmament, containing, inter alia, an assessment of the main negotiating processes and regional disarmament efforts (A/AC.206/12);

   (c) Working paper containing an annotated preliminary draft provisional agenda of the second special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament, submitted by Mexico (A/AC.206/13).

13. In accordance with the Committee's request at its third meeting, on 5 December 1980, the Secretariat prepared the following background papers:

   (a) Disarmament resolutions adopted by the General Assembly (A/AC.206/3);

   (b) A comprehensive study of official proposals or declarations made and decisions taken by the General Assembly on the procedure of unilateral or negotiated moratoria as a provisional measure for the prohibition of nuclear-weapon tests, as well as their application by any State (A/AC.206/4 and Corr.1);
(c) A comprehensive study of the origin, development and present status of the various alternatives proposed for the prohibition of the use of nuclear weapons (A/AC.206/5 and Corr.1);

Nations Secretariat for its work on disarmament and the organization of that work
(A/AC.206/6);

(e) A synthesis of the arguments adduced for and against each of the four proposals for the creation of nuclear-weapon-free zones that have been included in the agenda of the General Assembly (Africa, South Asia, the Middle East and the South Pacific) and for and against the proposal for the establishment of a zone of peace in the Indian Ocean, including a subject and country index (A/AC.206/7 and Add.1);

(f) Summary of studies in the field of disarmament prepared by the Secretary-General with the assistance of experts during the period 1977-1980 at the request of the General Assembly (A/AC.206/9);

(g) A comparative study of the scope originally proposed or aimed at in draft multilateral disarmament treaties of a universal character concluded under United Nations auspices and the scope finally fixed in those treaties, including the contemplated measures for expanding that scope (A/AC.206/10 and Corr.1);

(h) A list of disarmament and related proposals officially submitted to the United Nations (A/AC.206/15);

(i) A brief synopsis of disarmament and arms limitation negotiations since 1978 - including their results - carried out within the framework of the United Nations on a regional basis or bilaterally, with indication, where appropriate, of the procedures followed to keep the United Nations informed (A/AC.206/16 and Corr.1).

14. In addition, at the Committee's request at its 11th meeting, on 8 May 1981, the Secretariat prepared a series of compilations of views of Member States on the agenda and other relevant questions relating to the second special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament. (A/AC.206/CRP.1 and Add.1-3;
A/AC.206/CRP.2 and Add.1-2; A/AC.206/CRP.3 and Add.1; and A/AC.206/CRP.4 and Add.1).

15. Pursuant to resolution 34/83 E, adopted on 11 December 1979, the report of the Secretary-General entitled "Study on the implications of establishing an international satellite monitoring agency", was circulated as a document of the Preparatory Committee (A/AC.206/14).

16. The proceedings of the meetings of the Preparatory Committee, including the views expressed by delegations, are contained in the summary records (A/AC.206/3R.1 to ____).
