Executive Summary

Sudan Affirms its strong condemnation of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, committed by whomever, and wherever and for whatever purposes, as it constitutes one of the most serious threats to international peace and security, and while supports the efforts on measures to eliminate international terrorism, and threats international peace and security caused by terrorist acts, it refers to its commitment with the support of efforts to support the sovereign equality of all states, respect for territorial integrity and political independence, and to refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force in any manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations and principles, and support the settlement disputes by peaceful means and in accordance with the principles of justice and international law, respect for the right of peoples which remain under colonial domination or foreign occupation to self-determination, non-interference in countries' internal affairs, and respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms, respect for the equal rights of everyone without discrimination on the basis of race, sex, language or religion and international cooperation in solving economic, social, cultural or humanitarian character of international problems, and to fulfill in good faith the commitments made by countries themselves. And it confirms Sudan also reaffirm that it may not be and should not associate terrorism with any religion, nationality, civilization or ethnic group.

Sudan recognizes that international cooperation and any measures undertaken to prevent and combat terrorism must be in line with obligations under international law, which at that supports the strengthening of coordination and cooperation among States in combating crimes that may be related to terrorism, especially the following prevention measures terrorists from acquiring weapons of mass destruction, and calls for the intensification of national efforts and cooperation at bilateral, sub regional, regional and international levels, as appropriate, in order to improve border and customs controls to prevent and detect the movement terrorists, and illicit trafficking in nuclear materials or chemical, biological or radiological materials related to them. Sudan would like here to draw attention to the need to adopt all States the comprehensive strategy to combat terrorism adopted by the to address the factors that facilitate terrorism, and enhance the ability of nations and rule of law, with the promotion also of basic human rights, which is based on the five basic elements discourage groups from resorting to terrorism; preventing the arrival of terrorists from acquiring the means to launch an attack; deterring states from supporting terrorist groups; developing state capacity to prevent terrorism; and defending human rights in the context of terrorism and counter-terrorism, which at that confirms its support for Security Council resolution 1540 number which determines a set of binding measures must be implemented by countries in order to prevent terrorists from acquiring weapons of mass destruction.

Sudan would like to emphasize that it will spare no effort for carrying out his duties effectively as a member of the international community to prevent enable terrorists from acquiring weapons of mass destruction, and support that direction by signing and approving a number of agreements and treaties concluded to prohibit and prevent the spread of weapons of mass destruction, such as the Convention on Prohibition of the Development the production, use and storage of Chemical weapons and on their destruction, the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, production, use, stockpiling of biological and toxin weapons, and on their destruction, the Convention on the non-proliferation nuclear agreement ban partial nuclear test, and Geneva protocol. Sudan has fulfill liabilities of these agreements and treaties, and has adapted its national legislation and laws, and took a number of practical steps to improve controlling borders and customs, exports and imports, moreover, risk assessment and management techniques of detection and screening and the involvement of the industrial sector, as well as his efforts to implement resolution 1540. Sudan would like to reiterate his conviction that the best solution to this mater lies in the complete elimination of these deadly weapons.